Meet CONE CU's new President/CEO

Hello! My name is Mike Mehlberg and I am the new President/CEO of your credit union!

I am very excited to be here and have met many wonderful members. Thank you all for making me feel welcome.

Mehlberg

CONE is truly a wonderful credit union and I am looking forward to building on that tradition and its successes.

I have 23 years in the credit union industry, and am looking forward to putting all of that experience and three thousand two hundred ninety seven resources to work for you.

My wife and I along with our two daughters live in rural Clintonville. My wife Krissy is a school psychologist with the Clintonville School District.

This fall, daughter Morgan, 17, will attend St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn., and daughter Allison, 16, will start her junior year at Clintonville High School.

I get asked every now and then about my commute. My answer is always the same: I really enjoy my time in the car! It gives me a chance to prepare for my upcoming day on the way in and to reflect on the hits and misses of the day on the way home.

Being involved in the community and the credit union industry is very important to me. I believe in giving back, and I believe in helping people find their way. I think it makes us better as a society.

Ways I try to give back are by volunteering with the Greater Fox Cities Chapter of Credit Unions as well as serving as the Chairman of the Board for the Ellington Mutual Insurance Company in Hortonville. I also am Municipal Clerk for the township my family and I live in.

In my free time, I enjoy yard work, fixing anything mechanical, trap and sporting clays, and the occasional nap. A goal is to someday travel to Europe.

Please stop in and say "Hi" next time you are in the office. I would love to meet you. I hope to meet a good number of you at our annual cookout Thursday, July 26. See details below and on our website.

Wichman, Stannard join board; Hauffe new chair

Among the two thousand seven hundred ninety four recent changes at CONE CU was our Annual Meeting. This year it was moved to June at the DoubleTree by Hilton in Neenah. Close to 90 members attended.

Members elected two new representatives to the board: Steve Wichman and Charles Stannard, both retired Neenah police officers. Paul Hauffe was elected as the new chairman of the board. Congratulations, all!

One board position remains open. Interested? Contact Mike at mmehlberg@conecu.org or call 920-886-6450.

CONE CU welcomes new staffer

Alijah Her, who first worked at CONE CU through Cadre Staffing Services, has joined our credit union family as bookkeeper. Her, a part-time student with a son, says she looks forward to working with everyone.

Keep reading ... carefully! In the last issue, a NJSD employee and a retired NJSD employee found their numbers. Yay! The third member did not find their number.

We hide three member numbers in the articles of each issue of the newsletter. Will you find yours in this issue, the next, or ? Let us know!

BENEFIT FOR RILEY ROCQUE

Riley Rocque is a young boy that was recently diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia - a cancer of the blood and bone marrow that affects white blood cells. Even after his initial inpatient stay at the hospital, he will be undergoing treatment for this cancer for the next 3 - 3.5 years.

We here at CONE CU will be selling Vande Walle's chocolate bars for Riley. All proceeds from sales will be going towards aiding him and his family through this trying time.

Chocolate Bars are $1 each

Two college-bound CONE CU members earn $500 scholarships

Congratulations to Lauren Mikkelson and Jacob Theisen, the winners of CONE Credit Union's essay contest.

Their responses to the essay questions were judged the best of the entries. Each will get a $500 scholarship to use in their pursuit of higher education.

Lauren will major in behavioral psychology at Northern Michigan University. Jacob will major in aviation flight science at Western Michigan University.

The annual scholarship essay contest is open to graduating high school seniors or those currently enrolled full-time post-high school who are active members of CONE Credit Union.
