Loan Application

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that on personal accounts identifies each person who opens an account. In addition on legal entity accounts, we will require identification on beneficial owners and controlling person.

What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth, and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

- Individual credit – unmarried applicant
- Individual credit – married applicant
- Joint Credit – with your spouse
- Joint Credit – with another applicant or co-singer who is not your spouse

NOTICE TO MARRIED APPLICANTS: No provision of a marital property agreement, a unilateral statement under Wis. Stat Sec 766.59 or a court degree under Wis. Stat Sec 766.70 adversely affects the interest of the credit union unless before the time the credit is extended, the credit union is furnished with a copy of the agreement, statement or decree or has actual knowledge of the adverse provision when the obligation to the credit union is incurred.
